SUGAR HILL INN CELEBRATES FOOD & WINE WEEKEND, NOV 10-11, 2006

Sugar Hill, NH – Guests have enjoyed Sugar Hill Inn’s Wine Dinners so much, it makes perfect sense to expand these “edutaining” events to an entire weekend. Plan to spend November 10-11 at the Sugar Hill Inn tasting and learning about outstanding wines paired with fabulous foods during Sugar Hill Inn’s Wine & Food Weekend. Friday starts out with a gourmet dinner in the dining room followed by a dessert wine-tasting in the Tavern. Saturday includes Sugar Hill Inn’s signature breakfast, afternoon hors d’oeuvres and a five-course dining extravaganza where each course is paired with a different fine wine. Ken Scupp of Kobrand Wines will be on hand to answer questions too. While it’s a weekend dedicated to merriment and cheer, there’s plenty to do in between. Work up an appetite hiking or biking on hundreds of miles of trails nearby, or do some pre-holiday shopping – it’s tax-free in New Hampshire.

The Food & Wine Weekend Package includes:

- 2 nights accommodations in your choice of cottage, premier or deluxe whirlpool rooms
- Full country breakfast daily
- Afternoon hors d’oeuvres
- Gourmet dinner Friday night followed by a dessert wine tasting in the Tavern
- Five Course Wine Dinner Saturday night. Each course is paired with the perfect wine.

All for $644-$795.20 per couple. Since it’s Veteran’s Day weekend, why not take Monday off, and extend the weekend? Add a third night and receive a 25-percent discount off the room rate.

Originally built in 1789, the Sugar Hill Inn still maintains vestiges of the original beams and wide plank hand-hewn pine floors. A popular vacation retreat for celebs like Bette Davis, the Sugar Hill Inn maintains its historic significance while artfully blending modern amenities including in-room
